Mayor's Reading Challenge

Are you ready for a challenge? Mayor Rick Kriseman is calling for all students to read 2016-2017 Sunshine State Young Readers or Florida Teens Read Award books this summer. Complete the Mayor's Reading Challenge and your name will be entered to win a Kindle Fire 7. So, start reading and see the insert for a list of titles and your entry form. After reading, submit your completed entry form to any St. Petersburg Library.

Family Summer Reading Kick-Off – June 11, 2-4 pm

Jump start a summer of fun at the Main Library during the Family Summer Reading Kick-Off where there will be games, food and prizes. Pick up your summer incentive game cards for the Get in the Game.. Read! activity.

Reading with the Rays Kick-Off - June 30

The St. Petersburg Library System is excited to participate in the Reading with the Rays program and to host the 2016 Reading with the Rays Kick-off Event on June 30. Sponsored by the Rays Baseball Foundation, Suncoast Credit Union, and the Tampa Bay Times Newspaper in Education, Reading with the Rays offers baseball tickets for reading "round the bases." See inside for more details.

2016 One City One Book, Eleanor and Park by Rainbow Rowell

Students entering 6th through 12th grade, join fellow St. Pete residents and visitors in our city-wide read of Eleanor and Park, by Rainbow Rowell. Eleanor Douglas and Park Sheridan couldn't be more different. Unconventional, they begin to form a bond and share a love of comic books and music. Over time their ties strengthen, but will the turbulent circumstances in their lives be enough to maintain their bond and sustain them at school and with their classmates? Read and find out and stay tuned for library activities.

Oh, but wait. There's more!
